

CROIX ROUGE SERBE 1917 FIELD POST SERVICE

The Croix Rouge Serbe (Red Cross Society in Serbia) represented by the Central Committee of Belgrade and presided over by the Metropolitan Archbishop Michel, was accepted into the International Red Cross Society in 1876. [Ref: Formation of Croix Rouge Serbe. G. Ador and G. Moynier. International Review of the Red Cross (formerly the Bulletin) Vol.7 (27); 118-119 (July 1876)]

Official Address 1917: Croix Rouge Serbe, Bureau de Renseignements (Information Office), Rue Muzy 1, Genève

Presented is a Swiss pre-stamped Printed Stationery Postcard initially handled by a Croix Rouge Serbe Censor "FELDEIRC R 175" Post Office. Applied is a wavy machine cancellation Genève dated 6.VII.1917.

Correspondent: Mihailo Nušić Addressee: Gospodju Vukosavu M Nušić, Miletina ulica 17, Belgrade, Serbia.

Whether there was a familial link with Branislav Nušić (Alcibiades Nusha) famous playwright, satirist, essayist, novelist and founder of modern rhetoric in Serbia (1864-1938) who, in 1915, with the Serbian army, crossed Albania and stayed in Italy, France and Switzerland until the end of the war, is unknown.

R M Pelteret

Thursday, 29 August 2019