

CHARLES HERBERT HUTT

The Rev. C.H. Hutt. was awarded the Queens South Africa Medal (no bar)(inscribed REV.C.H.HUTT.P.C.DEPT.) for service to the Press Censor Department between 10 March 1902 and 22 May 1902.

Charles Herbert Hutt was born in 1872 in Lyons, Durham. His father was the Rev. Richard Goade Hutt of Haddesdon, Hertfordshire and mother, Emily of Cocking Sussex (d. 1925). He was a Clerk in Holy Orders at Chartham Rectory near Canterbury Cathedral. He was married twice; first to Florence Hutt who died 15 April 1912, leaving him with three daughters, second to Kate Hutt who survived him. He died 3 August 1932 in Worthing, England.

GENEALOGY

Rev. Richard Goade Hutt m. Emily (d. 1925).

Charles Herbert Hutt b. 1872, Lyons, Durham d. 3 August 1932 MOOC

6/9/4204.36354 Worthing m. (first) Florence Hutt (d. 15 April 1912)

1. Florence Emily

2. Majorie Rose

3. Lois Joy

Charles Herbert Hutt b. 1872, Lyons, Durham d. 3 August 1932 MOOC

6/9/4204.36354 Worthing m. (second) Kathleen (Kate) Hutt (d. 1940) MOOC

6/9/6104.68053